DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because the figure on sheet 4 is not labeled, for example "FIG. 4". See 37 CFR 1.84(u). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The Brief Description of the Drawings does not provide a description of Figures 2-4. See MPEP 608.01(f).

Appropriate correction is required.

Election/Restrictions

3. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 16-23, drawn to a method for gluing wood fibers.

Group II, claim(s) 24-33, drawn to an apparatus for gluing wood fibers.

4. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The common technical feature between the claimed method and claimed apparatus is the combination of steps or means for pressurizing and conveying glue, forming a curtain of wood fibers, atomizing glue from a plurality of nozzles to apply glue to the curtain, wherein pressures and flow rates within the claimed range are possible.

These limitations are clearly shown by Christen (US 4572845). See Christen (Abstract; Figures 1-3; column 2, lines 1-20; column 4, lines 64-66). As to operation at a pressure within the claimed range and a flow rate within the claimed range, it is noted that this is not a common technical feature because the claimed apparatus is not limited to particular method limitations. In any event Christen suggests a pressure of 40 bar (column 6, line 18). Naturally, the glue flow rate is directly linked to the production rate. In other words, it is readily apparent that glue flow rate is a result effective variable. Accordingly, optimization of the glue flow rate to maximize production rate while providing suitable mixing involves no more than routine experimentation. Suitable nozzles are well known, as evidenced by King (US 4263091; column 1, lines 11-14; column 4, lines 40-55). For these reasons, the common technical feature is not considered a special technical feature which defines over the prior art. Accordingly, restriction is considered proper.

5. A telephone call was made to Joseph Corso on 01 December 2008 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
